WILLIAM RUSSELL.

MARCH 29, 1898.—Ordered to be printed.

Mr. TURNER, from the Committee on Pensions, submitted the following REPORT.

[To accompany S. 3002.]

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the bill (S. 3002) granting a pension to William Russell, have examined the same and report:

Claimant served as a private in Capt. Samuel Gordon's Company H, Second Regiment Oregon Volunteers, from November 25, 1855, until February 16, 1856; and in Capt. Edward Sheffield's Company A, of the same regiment, from February 18 until May 10, 1856. In an engagement with the Indians at Myrtle Creek, Oregon, he received wounds of the right arm, right breast, and left arm; and he alleges that by reason of said wounds he is incapacitated from earning a living three-fourths of the time, and that he is dependent upon his labor for a livelihood. His statements are verified by the testimony of Christopher C. McClen-don, who has known him for thirty-eight years.

Your committee report the bill favorably and recommend that it pass.
